As Professor of [Department] at [University Name], I work with many students who have substantial knowledge of [Subject]. Each year I notice that only a few outstanding students offer a unique perspective and really embrace their learning of the subject matter. [Mr./Ms. Last Name] has consistently shown such a strong desire to learn that I simply could not turn down [his/her] request for recommendation.

I first met [Mr./Ms. Last Name] in my [Course Title] course during the [Season and Year] semester. Compared to the class average of [Class Average], [Mr./Ms. Last Name] earned a [Grade] in the class. [Mr./Ms. Last Name] was evaluated on [explain basis for grades, e.g., exams, papers, etc.], in which [he/she] performed exceptionally well.

Though [Mr./Ms. Last Name] has consistently exceeded in all areas of [his/her] coursework, the best example of [his/her] intelligence shone through a [paper/presentation/project/etc.] on [work's title]. To Whom It May Concern:

As Principal of XXX High School I am delighted to recommend to you a stellar member of our teaching staff, Mr. Samuel Cohen, and to write this letter on his behalf. Sam has taught American History at the school for three years.

He came to us directly upon completion of his bachelor's degree, but immediately settled in as if an old pro. Sam is a master of all of the ingredients of successful teaching, especially the ability to inspire.

Reaction to Sam's classes has been overwhelmingly positive. So much so that more than once it has been reported to me that study hall students have been spotted lingering outside the door to Sam's classroom listening to his lessons.

The only thing that we in the school administration have ever worried about in regard to Sam is the prospect of funding his bottled water. Sam is such a passionate and prolific speaker that he needs a steady supply to maintain his voice.

It will be a sad day when we announce that Sam will be pursuing his graduate degree on a fulltime basis. We can only hope that he keeps his promise and returns to us as soon as the ink is dry on his new diploma.

Sincerely,
XXX

Letter of Recommendation for Graduation Employment

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great privilege that I write to you in recommendation of Marty McFly. Until recently, I have been Marty's direct supervisor. I have found him to be a pleasant, generous person who is never afraid to take on a challenging task. He has been one of our most dedicated employees.

Marty is an independent, self-directed person who can communicate effectively and meet even the most demanding challenges. During his three-year tenure here, he set an unprecedented record in portfolio growth. Marty's stock picks averaged returns 500% higher than the S&P, much to our competitors dismay.

While his on the job performance has been nothing less than stellar, Marty has also become a close friend to many of us. We pride ourselves on our corporate values and close-knit community, and in this area he truly shines. Marty, along with his father George, have organized many family picnics complete with storytelling and live music. Marty is not only gifted in his uncanny ability to foresee growth opportunities, he is also a very talented musician!

Though we are all deeply disappointed to lose Marty, I highly recommend him for employment with your organization. He is a team player, a great person and an absolute financial genius.

Best Regards,

Subject: Fall Travel Awards for Graduate School Funded PhD Fellows

I am pleased to let you know that as part of USC's continuing efforts to support our students' academic and professional development, we will again make grants available to Graduate School PhD Fellows for travel to conferences and to research sites. The base grant award is $200. The fellow's program matches this amount with $200. The Graduate School will contribute another $200, for a total of up to $1,200 available to the student.

The deadline for fellows to complete the fall online application is Friday, October 3, 2014 at 12 noon. A second application period will be announced in the spring semester.

Eligible students include PhD students funded by Provost's, Annenberg, Flow-Hills Foundation and other Graduate School programs. Departmental funding is not required. Graduate students in their USC PhD programs, including those with the Graduate School's various advanced fellowships, including the Endowment and Dissertation Completion fellowships are also eligible to apply.

Fellows will complete an on-line application and will be asked to collect signatures from their faculty advisor, department chair, and dean or dean's designate, advising that they are making good progress toward the PhD and that the specific travel request will serve their academic goals. The online application will be available starting on Friday, September 19, 2014.

The Graduate School will allocate funds directly to departments to allow students maximum flexibility in making travel arrangements with departmental policies. Fellows who receive travel grants will be expected to submit reports to their advisors and department chairs. The grant may be used to cover travel on multiple trips to, or in multiple cities, after the date of application.

In addition to these funds, fellows are encouraged to apply to the Graduate Student Government for travel funding. For further information, please contact Kate Toppinger, Fellowship Coordinator at kate@usc.edu.

You can decide which time to provide considering the number of responsibilities that the reference has at the moment. If a person meeting is not possible, it is possible to ask the phone or send a short e-mail before continuing with further details. After it, it is necessary to send a formal written request for the letter of recommendation. Since then, I have created a diversified portfolio and grew my trust. In this article we explain how to request a letter of recommendation for the specialization school and provide a request sample to help you compose yours. What is a letter of recommendation? A letter of recommendation is a document written by a Professional or academic contact person to verify your abilities, character traits and attitude for the desired role or program. Here are some suggestions to provide the best information to writers: choose people who appreciate a letter of recommendation to a professor or a manager is an opportunity to show them that you appreciate their opinion on your abilities, so you can also tell the Your referent because you have chosen to ask them for a recommendation. Thanks to your encouragement, I arrived third in the race. A formal request also maintains professional courtesy, and provides information to help them compose the recommendation. to someone to be your reference: Email Examples3. For effective letters of recommendation, choose people who are familiar with your skills, accomplishments and strengths. For Per If you asked your accounting professor to write a letter for your master's degree in business administration, you could explain how their classes inspired you to pursue an advanced degree in the field. Choose Who You Want to Write Your LetterMost graduate programs require two á four letters of recommendation for application and some programs may specify that letters of recommendation are to be submitted only by professors or professors and employers. Try generating a list of several people you work very carefully with in the university, or at work. If you are able to write the letter of recommendation, I will send you a stamped and addressed envelope for your convenience.I have enclosed samples of my portfolio, my academic transcripts and a list of competitions I have taken part in, indicating where I have taken part.I know you are busy, so I appreciate your time and commitment if you decide to write me this letter. If you're not in college anymore, you may want to ask your manager and a co-worker to write your letters. This extra gesture is another professional courtesy that will probably strengthen your relationship with that referral, which you can benefit from in the future if you need it again.Learn More1: Guide to Thank You NotesExample of Requesting a Letter of Reference for a Graduate SchoolReview this example of a formal request to help you write your letter of reference request for a graduate school.To: BCopeland@sw Subject: Letter of Reference Request for Jill SmithDear Professor Copeland,S I am writing an e-mail requesting a letter of recommendation for the Master of Visual Arts program at Triton University for the fall of 2019.
